Portfolio Strategy

The Strategy Asset Managers Worldwide Balanced product is structured for the more conservative investor. Each portfolio will typically hold 25 to 35 stocks with 50% to 80% committed to equities and 20% to 50% invested in short term, laddered bonds including US Treasuries, agencies, and corporates. The equity portion is 70% to 90% invested in domestic equities and 10% to 30% invested in international equities in the form of ADRs. A stock can be sold if it hits its price target, its fundamentals change, or it can be replaced by a stronger candidate with more upside potential. Inception Date: 07/01/2001.

Portfolio Details

The investment team looks for companies with established market positions and favors companies with increasing dividend payouts. The team seeks stocks that have price-to-earnings ratios that are at a discount to the market, free cash flow to finance growth, balance sheet leverage, and strong competitive market positions. The team wants companies that have good corporate governance and incentive plans that align management with the interest of shareholders.

The Worldwide Balanced strategy performance reflects the results of composite members that are discretionary accounts that seek to outperform our custom "Global Balanced Index". For the equity allocation (typically 60%-80% of the portfolio), the strategy utilizes a bottom-up, fundamental analysis "relative value" approach to selecting common stocks. The objective is to buy "high quality" large capitalization companies (both domestically and internationally via ADRs) at a discount to their fair market value. The fixed income allocation (typically 20%-40% of the portfolio) is composed of short/intermediate duration high quality corporate bonds, US treasuries or US agency securities.

Benchmark: Global Balanced Index, which consists of 48% SPDR® S&P 500® ETF Trust, 12% iShares MSCI EAFE ETF, and 40% The iShares Core U.S. Aggregate Bond ETF. The US dollar is the currency used to express performance. The SPDR® S&P 500® ETF Trust seeks to provide investment results that, before expenses, correspond generally to the price and yield performance of the S&P 500® Index (the "Index"). The S&P 500 Index is a diversified large cap U.S. index that holds companies across all eleven GICS sectors. The ETF returns reflect the deduction of all expenses and transaction costs incurred by the SPDR® S&P 500® ETF Trust. As of December 31, 2023, the expense ratio was 0.0945%. The SPDR® S&P 500® ETF Trust returns reflect the closing prices, which are determined by the last traded price of the ETF. The iShares MSCI EAFE ETF seeks to track the investment results of an index composed of large- and mid-capitalization developed market equities, excluding the U.S. and Canada. The ETF returns reflect the deduction of all expenses and transaction costs incurred by the iShares MSCI EAFE ETF. As of December 31, 2023, the expense ratio was 0.33%. The iShares MSCI EAFE ETF returns reflect the closing prices, which are determined by the last traded price of the ETF. The iShares Core U.S. Aggregate Bond ETF seeks to track the investment results of an index composed of the total U.S. investment-grade bond market. The ETF returns reflect the deduction of all expenses and transaction costs incurred by the iShares Core U.S. Aggregate Bond ETF. As of December 31, 2023, the expense ratio was 0.03%. The iShares Core U.S. Aggregate Bond ETF returns reflect the closing prices, which are determined by the last traded price of the ETF.
