Portfolio Details

The portfolio holds securities with above average dividend yields, strong dividend payment histories, sustainable free cash flow, and a track record of dividend increases. We also look to include companies with lower volatility than the market and a positive business outlook that could translate into price appreciation and dividend growth. The portfolio will typically hold 25 to 35 stocks. A stock can be sold or replaced if it hits its price target, its fundamentals change, or we identify a stronger candidate with more upside potential or the prospect of faster dividend growth.

The Worldwide Dividend Plus strategy performance reflects the results of composite members that are discretionary accounts that seek to outperform our custom "Global Dividend Index". The strategy utilizes a bottom-up, fundamental analysis "relative value" approach to selecting common stocks. The objective is to buy "high quality" large capitalization companies (both domestically and internationally via ADRs) at a discount to their fair market value. The strategy emphasizes companies with above market dividend yields, consistent payment of dividends and/or the prospect of increasing dividends.
